CLEARAWAY

200 Cool Frocks for Women, $5 to $50

Silk Blouses
$5, $7.50, $8.50
They were $8.75, $12.75 and $13.75

These are handsome blouses. The silks are heavy and lustrous, and the styles differ from those generally shown. Some crepes de chine, checked silks with satin vestees, colored Georgettes with white vests, and white tub silks with trimmings of colored lines, $5. Striped fancy silk both in pin stripes and broad sport stripes. Bright colorings, $12.75. And better sport silks at $13.75. First floor, Old Building.

Women's Porch Dresses
Less at $5.85

Gingham, voile and chambray. Every one has been reduced, though all are perfectly fresh. Sizes are broken, of course, and of certain models we have but few, but there is an ample quantity as a whole and the opportunity for selection is excellent. Third floor, Old Building.

Silk Petticoats, $5.75

They include all jersey skirts in smart styles, messalines, tafetas and radium silks. Lovely changeable colorings. Some have silk fringe as a trimming. Third floor, Old Building.

Men's Underwear
At Big Savings

Cleaning up the odds and ends left from the big sale.

At 75c
Union Suits—first quality—cotton—sleeveless—knee length. Sizes 34, 36 and 46 only. Our $2.25 grade in the big sale. First offered at $1.13. Then at 85c. Now—the remainder—75c.

At 75c
Mesh Drawers—"seconds"—sizes 30 to 48, but only a few in size 38. Our $2.25 grade in the big sale. First offered at 86c. Now 75c.

At 75c
Union Suits—first quality—white lace and mesh. Sizes mostly 34 and 36—a few in size 46. Our $2.25 to $4 grade in the big sale. Offered first at $1.63 and $1.75. Then at $1.25. Now 75c. Burlington Arcade floor, New Building.

Made Veils in Smart Patterns—55c

Our 75c and $1.50 Grades

A wealth of both colors and styles. The colors are taupe, navy, tan, gray, purple, brown, black, white. The brown and black ones come also with colored embroidery. The styles include Scotland, lace, hand-run, embroidered, in color, scroll designs and bordered designs. Main floor, Old Building.

The Best Suits for Men That John Wanamaker Owns REDUCED

A BUSINESS proposition for a Business man... All that John Wanamaker has left of his regular $37.50, $40, $42.50, $45 and $50 Summer suits—reduced

To $32.50

There are about 350 of them—the best suits that John Wanamaker has owned this season—and better, perhaps, than he'll ever own again at the same prices. But—

There is no possibility of matching them up for next season, either in quality or pattern. They would not fit in with the new stock that is available in today's market. And—

As they were bought almost a year ago, this LOW price helps US to close out the group and enables YOU to pocket a saving.

The fabrics are the good fancy chevrons, cassimeres and worsteds that will still be in top-notch shape long after their less substantial brothers have passed out; and—

The patterns and colorings are for the business-man type—neat, in good taste and always desirable. ALL SIZES—stout, slim, short, tall, and regular. Something that few sales can offer. But—THIS is a Wanamaker Sale—and that makes a difference. Burlington Arcade floor, New Building.

SYNOPSIS OF NEW LAW

Latest Decisions of the Courts of Last Resort
Compiled by William McMahon.

Published in The Evening World on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

An attorney employed to investigate title to real estate must make a painstaking examination of records and report all facts relating to title and is liable for injury to client from negligence in performance of such duty.—Jacobsen vs. Petersen, N. Y. Sup. 983.

A husband who, without justification therefor, accuses wife of infidelity, charges her with adultery, calls her insulting names and strikes her and by such course of treatment compels her to leave him, will be deemed to have deserted and abandoned her within the code, providing that a divorce may be granted for desertion and abandonment.—Pattison vs. Pattison, Court of Appeals of Maryland.

The introduction in evidence by the State of the conduct of a dog in trailing one accused of arson, was error, where there was an insufficient showing that the dog had been trained in following the tracks of human beings, strangers to the dog, and found trustworthy in such work.—People vs. Whitlock, 171 N. Y. S. 109.

Incompatibility of temper is not cause either for divorce or for separation in New York.—171 N. Y. Sup. 138.

The rendering of an account showing a balance due in effect merely an offer to pay the balance shown to be due and may be withdrawn before actually accepted.—Kanause vs. Craig, 171 N. Y. Sup. 156.

An attorney appointed by the court pursuant to act of Congress passed to protect the civil rights of members of the military and naval establishments in the present war cannot be awarded any compensation for his services, which should be regarded as a patriotic duty.—Davison vs. Lynch, 171 N. Y. Sup. 46.

A member of the United States Naval Reserve force driving a motor vehicle along a city street in the performance of an urgent duty to deliver a despatch under instructions from his superior officer is not in time of war amenable to public laws regulating speed of motor vehicles, the State laws being subordinate to exigencies of military operations by the Federal Government in time of war.—State vs. Burton, Rhode Island.

One induced by false representations to purchase interest in partnership may elect whether he will rely on the contract or proceed in tort against the guilty parties.—Pastore vs. Priori, New Hampshire.

Notice from landlord to tenant to quit in a month held not rendered void by the notice on the same paper of increase of rent from date.—Blonkenburg vs. Markarian, Sup. Court, New Hampshire.

The written word in an insurance policy is entitled to preference over the printed.—Krohnberg vs. Federal Ins. Co., 171 N. Y. Sup. 169.

Payments made on open account will be presumed to have been applied to earliest items of indebtedness.—Durland vs. Crawford, 171 N. Y. Sup. 155.

Where plaintiff sued for extras incorporated in a building, defendant could recoup her damages on account of unworkmanlike performance of the principal contract, since both the claim and the counter claim arose out of the same transaction.—McPhillips v. Durkin, Sup. Court, R. I.
